Wanted to say some words at my father's funeral, but was too distraught to write my own eulogy. Found this poem and it spoke well to me. Was a lovely touching tribute. I only have a picture now, A frozen piece of time, To remind me of how it was, When you were here, and mine. I see your smiling eyes, Each morning when I wake, I remember your brave face through all the pain, The day you told us and I tried to remain sane."
